

Job Opening!

searching for a progressive leader

Date: October 17, 2011

Position: Executive Director
Rocky Mountain Deaf School
A Bilingual Charter School

Nature of Work: Provide innovative leadership to guide RMDS in its vision and assume responsibilities to ensure accountability of school's rigorous academics, finances, and overall school management.

Responsible for building partnerships with parents and community, supervising and establishing working relationships with staff, the general public and other government agencies, implementing new and current research in the field of deaf education, legislative and legal issues, and building a new school. Accountable for annual School Improvement Plan and other documentation required by the district and state.

Minimum

Qualifications: Master's Degree in Education, Education of Deaf Students, School Administration, or related field; proficiency in American Sign Language and written English; excellent communication skills; knowledge of Bilingual Education, Special Education laws and procedures, and financial management; experience in a leadership role, public relations, fundraising and recruitment.

Salary: Commensurate with education and experience (11 month administrative position)

To Apply: Interested persons should submit a letter of application, resume, official transcripts, and three recent employment references to:

Search Committee
Rocky Mountain Deaf School
1921 Youngfield St.
Golden, CO 80401

Closing Date: Completed applications must be received on or before January 6, 2012.
Applications will be prescreened before candidates are invited for an interview.

high performing ● innovative ● committed