

Week of Dec. 7-11

We had a pretty calm week considering its 2 weeks before Winter Break! On Tuesday, Nicole came in to help us make Holiday cards for people in the school. We worked very hard and on Wednesday we gave them to people like Kelly, Katy, Janet, Nancy, and some of our friends. They all said we did such a good job and a big Thank You!!

We also kept on practicing for the Winter play next week. Janet brought us costumes and we had fun trying them on and picking our favorites. We videotaped ourselves on Friday and will watch the tape to see how we can improve next week. We also got to shop at the Holiday Store. On Thursday, we made lists and copied prices of what we wanted to buy for our families and friends. Then on Friday we brought money from home and purchased our gifts. We can't wait to give these gifts soon!

Katy and Kelly continued our winter assessments in Reading, Writing, and Math classes. We are hoping to show our improvements and we will see more this Spring. If parents are interested in the results of these, please contact us!

 IMPORTANT DATES**

Dec. 17- Winter play

Dec. 18- Early release/ start of Winter break

Jan. 4/5- Non-student contact days

Week of Nov. 30- Dec. 4

What a week we had- it was packed with fun activities! On Tuesday, we went to visit Signing Santa at the Cherry Creek Mall... some of us even made it onto the news! :) Then on Wednesday, Nicole came to talk to us about making fun of/respecting people who are different. In ASL class with Sara Lee and Kelly, we learned how to sign numbers in different ways and how to introduce ourselves to people. We also read a Christmas story and picked characters from the story to act out for the Winter play in 2 weeks. We will begin to rehearse and make props next week.

Friday was our busiest day of all! We started our winter assessments in the morning and did a great job of playing quietly when others were taking tests. Then because we earned 30 stickers for respecting others, we got to watch the movie "Polar Express" and eat popcorn for the rest of the morning! After lunch, we met Angelyne the Deaf Dog and saw some of her tricks. Sierra helped to teach her to sit!

Next week we will have the Holiday Store where we can buy presents for the people in our lives. The following week is the Winter play and Winter Break! Hope to see you at the play!
